ABOUT US

The Bloggy is a platform which provides you quality contents in the form of blogs. We have included various domains like Travel blogs, Food blogs, Technical blogs, Lifestyle blogs, Sports blogs, personal blogs, Motivational blogs and many more to make your experience with us profound.

OUR FOUNDER

Kumar Gaurav

The Bloggy is created by one among the millions engineering students, KUMAR GAURAV, who is currently pursuing his bachelors in Electronics and communication engineering from Panjab University, Chandigarh.

What I thinks is, “Pen is still the best tool to transmit the voice of soul. But we have to mould ourselves along with the evolution in technology. Now digital platforms are acting as today’s pen and paper. Hence this is the best tool in this era to interact with the others.”

WHO ARE THE CONTRIBUTORS?

We have some of the most eminent writers who can mesmerize you with their thoughts and the way to express themselves in the easiest way. In addition to that, they will provoke you to relate to the content and extract plenty of positives out of it.

CAN WE CONTRIBUTE?

Of course, you can. You have to just scroll to the guest post section and you’re good to go. We will just take a quick look to the content and if worthy, it will be published right in our main framework.
